

LOCAL BALL TEAM. WINS ANOTHER GAME

Good Contest Is Scheduled for Next Sunday.

In a fast and well played game the St. Helens team defeated the Woodland team last Sunday at St. Helens by a score of 1 to 0. Griffith pitched "fair tight" ball for the visitors and the one tally scored against him was through an error by the centerfielder who dropped Jamison's long fly, letting Dill score from second, which run decided the game. Griffith allowed St. Helens but three hits and pitched good ball when in several places. Lunt worked for the local team and while not in the form that has characterized his past pitching, he could depend on support which was perfect, not an error charged.

Eickman had a busy day at first handling 12 put outs without a skip. The real feature of the day was the wonderful fielding of Drem, a youngster who played the left pasture for the visitors. He made two catches that robbed Eickman of two-baggers on each occasion.

A good game will be played next Sunday at the St. Helens diamond between the St. Helens team and Woodland.

The Noah's Ark Midgets will play a team from Yankton next Sunday at the school grounds at St. Helens. The game played between these teams last Sunday resulted in a score of 9 to 8 in favor of St. Helens.

ICE DELIVERIES.

Fred Watkins has his ice delivery business well systematized and is ready to supply the demands of the public for this commodity fully and on short notice. Regular deliveries throughout the season will be made at regular intervals throughout each day and special orders will be filled promptly. The provision Mr. Watkins has made for handling his business warrants the statement that the service will be complete in all respects. Phone orders promptly attended to.

MARRIED.

I. L. Clark and Miss Molena Long were married at the Methodist parsonage in this city Thursday afternoon by Rev. F. N. Sandifur. Both the contracting parties were from St. Johns, and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Learned and Mrs. Brasell of New York. The party motored to St. Helens from Portland.

PASSING OF MRS. BEVIS.

Mrs. Highly Jane Bevis died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Nickum, 472 Boulevard, Portland, last Friday evening at 9:30, May 14th, aged 85 years 4 months and 17 days. Funeral services were held at Holman's chapel by Rev. T. L. Elliot of the Unitarian church. Interment was in Lone Fir cemetery, beside her husband, who died 12 years ago. Her children surviving are Mrs. M. L. Nicholas, Mrs. J. M. Nickum, and J. W. Bevis of Portland, L. H. Bevis of Hood River, and Mrs. C. H. English of Deer Island. She also had two sisters, Mrs. S. A. Meus of Wichita, Kansas, and Mrs. S. M. Stevens of Bloomfield, Iowa, twenty-one grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Mrs. Bevis was a resident of Oregon for 53 years, having resided at Deer Island for a good many years.

BORN.

Matthews—At South St. Helens, May 26, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Matthews, a daughter.

TAXPAYERS' LEAGUE.

The Taxpayers' League of Warren precinct will meet Tuesday evening, May 25. Important matters to be attended to. Members requested to be present.

Local

"The Heart of a Painted Woman" is in five parts and two hundred scenes, and is said to be one of the most gripping and artistic motion picture productions. Will be shown at the Columbia Theatre on Wednesday night.

T. J. Ballagh of the Pure Food Bakery, will open a retail store in the Wellington building, with a line of bakery products unexcelled on the Coast. O-So-Good bread and pastry are what the "good eaters" are talking about.

Delmar Masten, well known in this vicinity, has succumbed to the inevitable and is now driving a Ford car instead of walking. It did not require much persuasion, as Mr. Masten was in very much of a (Ford) receptive mood when interviewed by the salesman. The thoroughfares in the vicinity of Yankton, Warren, Bachelor Flat and St. Helens are pretty well patronized by Mr. Masten and his car. W. Jones of Mist, this week purchased a Ford.

Mme. Olga Petrova, one of the stage's most beautiful and versatile dramatic actresses, makes her second screen appearance in "The Heart of a Painted Woman," a Metro picture, which comes to the Columbia Theatre on Wednesday, May 26.

Cards were played at the home of Mrs. Davis, the honors falling to Mrs. Jacob George, the prize being a beautiful cut glass bowl. Mrs. Rotger served the lunch at her home, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Mrs. Jacob George and Mrs. Annie Cox poured. The guests were Mrs. A. J. Peel, Mrs. A. H. George, Mrs. M. E. Miller, Mrs. W. B. Dillard, Mrs. Edwin Ross, Mrs. E. A. George, Mrs. J. L. Zipperer, Mrs. L. J. Van Orshoven, Mrs. Jacob George, Mrs. W. J. Muckle, Mrs. Annie Cox, Mrs. W. G. Muckle, Mrs. L. L. Chase, Miss Clara Kettel, Miss Lois Clear, Miss Beryl Muckle.

School Superintendent Allen had a birthday anniversary last Sunday. It has been said by some of his intimate friends that he has been a voter for six or seven years, to their personal knowledge, but how much longer they refrained from stating. Saturday evening he was reminded that it was the eve of the anniversary of his birth. This information was imparted to him through the cleverness of his good wife, who planned and carried out very successfully a surprise on the pedagogical gentleman. By the aid of a number of friends this feature was complete. The evening was spent by indulging in a contest at cards, in which Walter Blakesley was winner of high honors and Mrs. L. G. Ross succeeded in carrying away the consolation prize. The hostess served dainty refreshments. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lake, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Blakesley, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Deming, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Allen, Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. David Davis, Mrs. Wright and the host and hostess.

SHIPPING.

The steamer Hardy, after taking on 400,000 feet of lumber for delivery at San Francisco, sailed Wednesday night.

The steamer Klamath, the flagship of the McCormick fleet, arrived in Monday night and after taking on a full load of lumber for San Pedro, left out Thursday night. Her cabin accommodations were comfortably filled. On her next trip, the Klamath will load lumber and piling here for delivery at Pearl Harbor, just a few miles from Honolulu.

The steamer Celilo sailed Tuesday night, bound for San Pedro and San Diego. She carried 975,000 feet of lumber and 34 passengers.

His many friends were glad to welcome Captain Jahnson, who came in command of the Klamath this trip. The Klamath for the past few months has been under command of Captain Greene, but he has been transferred to the Multnomah, relieving Captain Foldat, who goes to the new steamer Wapama.
